

I truly enjoy the availability of news, weather, traffic and other consumer oriented services available throughout the country via satellite radio. please don't let the lobbyists degrade the quality of information available to consumers like me. Thanks